

Baltimore Dredges - Ellicott Division

Ellicott, Division of Baltimore Dredges, LLC, has been very active lately with many exciting projects for new and old customers alike. As previously reported, Baltimore Dredges, LLC acquired the operating assets of the Ellicott dredge business in March, 2002 (See WDMC, 3/02, pg. 4).

One of Ellicott's recent contracts was with the US Army Corps of Engineers for parts for the dredge Wheeler. Hung Quach of the Corps described the contract as, "...a major purchase for the manufacture of large machine castings requiring a high degree of skill and specialization." He added that, "The Corps was extremely satisfied with
